

Model of Creative Ability

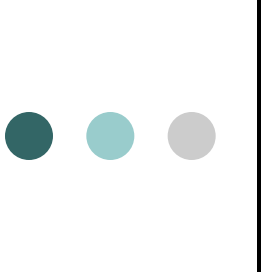

Assessment Groups

Girshwin Fester & Anecke Venter

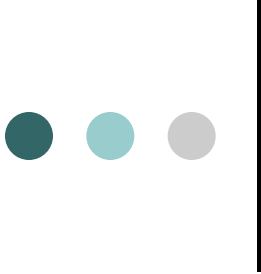

Background

- CMHT waiting list management
 - Existing referrals
 - New referrals
- Assessment group sessions started
- Applying the Model

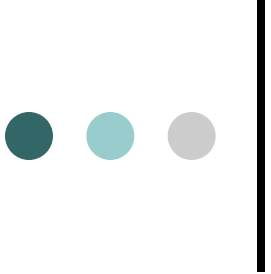

To level a client on the model of Creative Ability

- Subjective and objective information
- See clients in at least 3 settings
 - Group settings
 - Familiar settings and activities
 - Unfamiliar settings and activities

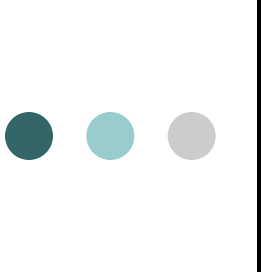

Assessment of...

- Handling of tools and materials
- Handling of people
- Handling of situations
- Handling of emotions
- Task Concept
 - Quality of product
 - Capacity for abstract thought
- Effort and initiative
- ? Supervision/ support needed
- Realistic goal setting
- Functional Components

Content of Assessment Group

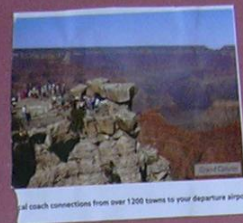

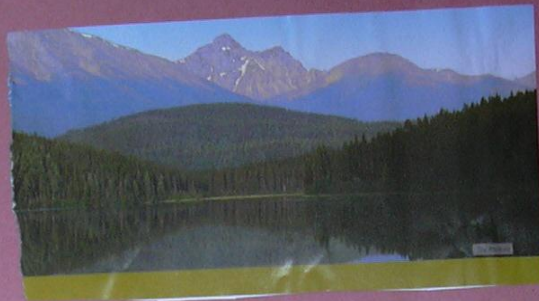

- Brentwood Resource Therapy
 - 4 Sessions
 - 3 Group Sessions
 - 1 Individual Interview
- Basildon Resource Therapy
 - 3 Sessions
 - 2 Group Sessions
 - 1 Individual Interview

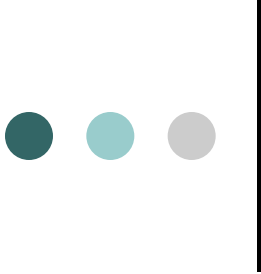

Assessment Group

- Individual activity within Group
- 'One Miracle' Question Collage
 - Picture an ideal life, knowing that the past can't be changed

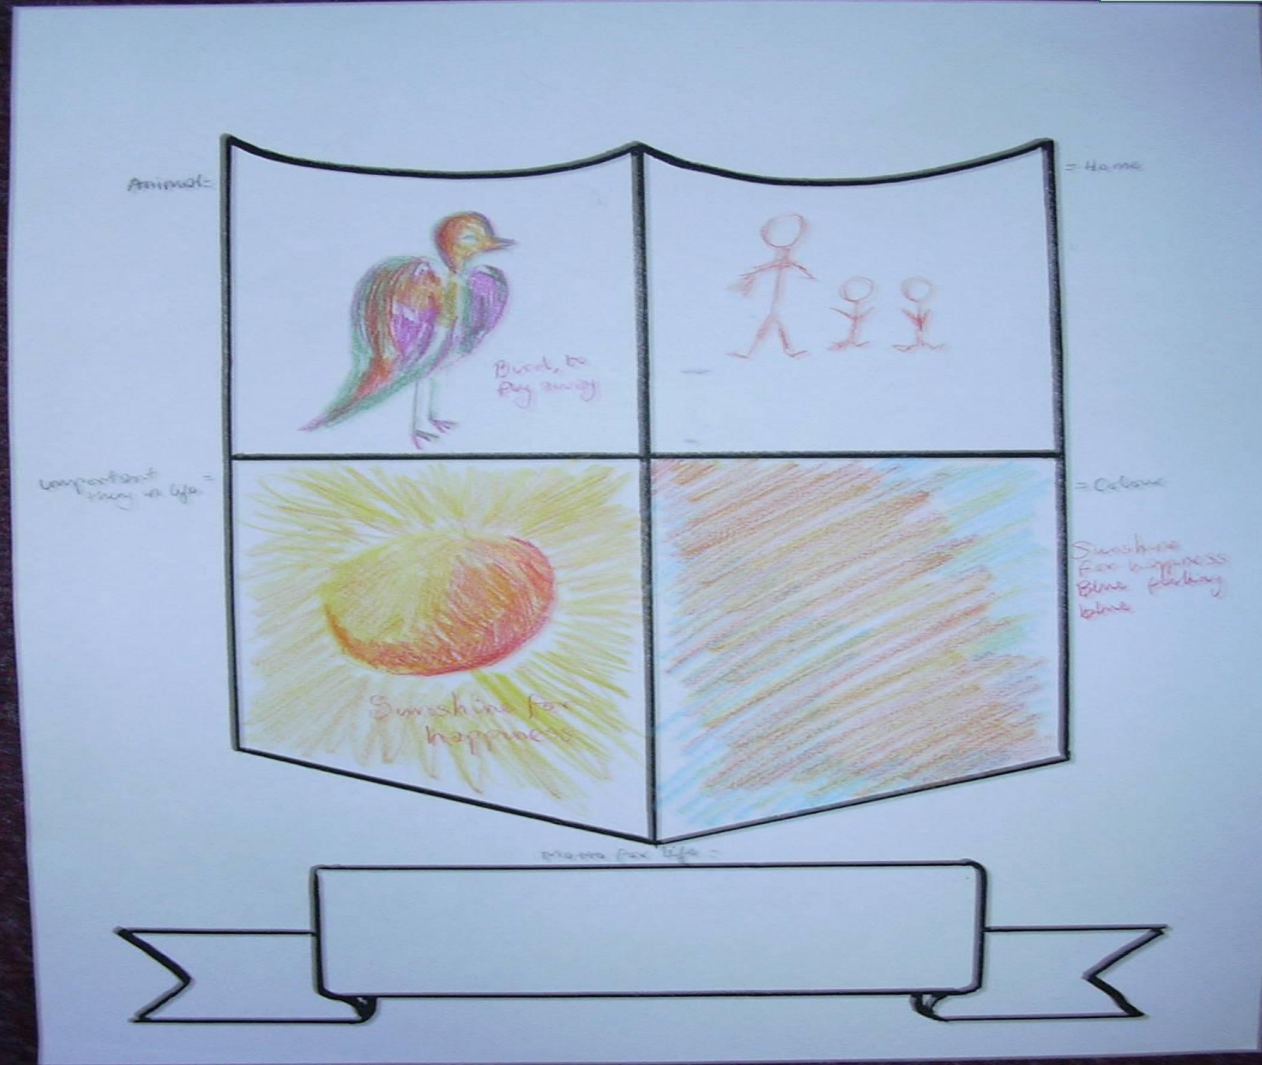

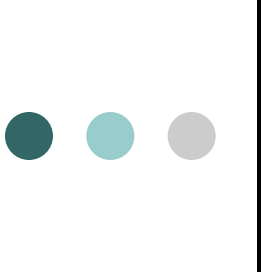

Assessment Group

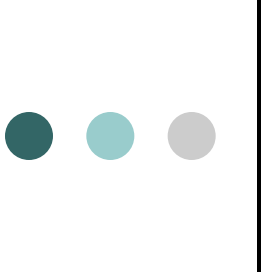

- Individual activity within Group
- Values Shield/ Coat of Arms
 - 4 sections
 - Home
 - An animal you identify with
 - Most important thing in the world to you
 - Three wishes
 - Colour that represents you
 - Month that is meaningful you
 - Activity you enjoy
 - A positive quality you possess

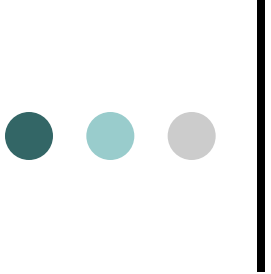

Assessment Group

- Group Activity - Building a tower
 - Paper, tape, random objects to support a small item
 - Evaluation of functional components and how this related to day to day living
 - Straws to build a free standing tower
 - Relate that to individual social support structure.

Assessment Group

- Individual interview
- Review of progress
- Planning of treatment
- Complete the legally required documentation for CPA
- Complete new Model based report .

Questions

- As we have explained this all SOOOO well we don't expect you have any.